

Project Progress Report Write-up

CS 595: Data-Intensive Computing

Due: 11:59 PM 11-02-2011

Overview

Your mid-term report will be an extension to your initial proposal that you wrote early in the semester. Your mid-term report should include the following information:

- Original Proposal
- New Section – Mid-Term Progress Report
 - Proposed solution
 - What have you completed so far (please include who did what)
 - Future work over the next 4 weeks
 - Evaluation
 - What have you completed so far (please include who did what)
 - Future work over the next 4 weeks
 - Be specific with what experiments you are likely to run, what scale, what metrics, etc.

Your new section “Mid-Term Progress Report” will likely be 1~2 pages (in addition to the original project proposal).
